

The Merrimack Town Council has taken the position not to meet with representatives from the Tennessee Pipeline Project unless they are held in public.

Consistent with that philosophy we have posted and will post in the future all documents provided to the Town. Please be advised that the Merrimack Town Council, as a body, has taken no position on this proposed project and expect that a public meeting will be held in the future.